

ST. ANTHONY'S SCHOOL (CBSE)

DISCIPLINE | DETERMINATION | DEDICATION
(A UNIT OF JEPPIAAR INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY)

AFFILIATION NO: 1931666

KUNNAM, SUGUVARCHATRAM, SRIPERUMBUDUR

CREATIVE WRITING SERIES – 13.08.2026

GRADE I & II - ROUND 1

Fill in and Create Your Own Story

INSPIRED FROM PANCHATANTRA TALES

1. Title: _____

A monkey lived on a fruit tree by a river and _____ with a crocodile. The crocodile's wife wanted the monkey's _____ after hearing how delicious the fruits were. The crocodile invited the monkey to his home and revealed the plan _____. The monkey calmly said _____. The crocodile returned, and the monkey _____, ending the friendship.

Moral: _____.

2. Title: _____

A lion trapped inside a _____ begged a passing fox for help. The fox _____ but first asked how the lion had _____. To demonstrate, the lion _____. The fox quickly shut the cage door, preventing the dangerous lion from _____. The fox safely walked away.

Moral: _____.

3. Title: _____

A deer, a crow, a mouse, and a tortoise were _____ friends. One day, the deer was _____. The mouse _____ the ropes while the crow _____. Later, the tortoise was captured. The friends worked together again by _____. Their _____ helped them overcome every challenge.

Moral: _____.

INSPIRED FROM JATAKA TALES

4. Title: _____

A golden goose visited the poor family of his _____ because he had been reborn with compassion. Each visit, he gave them one golden feather, which _____. _____ soon entered the mother's mind. She plucked all the feathers _____ hoping to become _____. The feathers immediately turned into _____. The goose flew away after growing _____.

Moral: _____

5. Title: _____

A gentle elephant faithfully served _____ every day. The woodcutter _____. Later, a king _____ for the royal palace. The elephant became sad because he _____. Learning the reason, the king _____ and rewarded the woodcutter generously.

Moral: _____

6. Title: _____

A parrot continued to live in a dried-up tree even after _____. The king of the gods asked why _____. The parrot replied that the tree had _____, so he would never abandon it in difficult times. Impressed by _____

Moral: _____

INSPIRED FROM AKBAR AND BIRBAL STORY

7. Title: _____

One winter night, Akbar promised a reward to a poor man who _____. The man succeeded but _____. Akbar refused the reward, saying _____. Birbal later hung a pot of _____ a tiny fire. When Akbar laughed that it _____, Birbal reminded him _____. Akbar realized his mistake and _____.

Moral: _____

8. Title: _____

Akbar asked the courtiers to find the most beautiful child _____. Everyone brought _____, but Birbal brought an _____. He explained that every parent _____. To prove it, he asked the boy's mother, who _____. Akbar understood that _____.

Moral: _____

9. Title: _____

A neighboring king demanded that Akbar send him a pot full of wisdom. Akbar turned to Birbal for help. Birbal placed _____. As the _____, it completely filled the pot. He sent it with a message saying the king should remove the wisdom without _____. The neighboring king realized the clever reply and admired Birbal's intelligence.

Moral: _____

INSPIRED FROM TENALI RAMAN STORY

10. Title: _____

King Krishnadevaraya gave each household a cat to control the growing rat population and _____. Tenali Raman believed the _____ for poor children than for the cat. He served the cat _____. After that, the cat refused to _____. When the king inspected the cats, Tenali's cat looked _____. Tenali explained that the cat _____. The king discovered the truth but appreciated Tenali's concern for the poor and ordered the milk to be given to needy children.

Moral: _____

11. Title: _____

The king loved Brinjal curry from the royal garden and ordered that _____. Tenali Raman enjoyed _____ and secretly took some _____. When questioned, his young son innocently said _____. Since it had not rained, everyone laughed. Tenali cleverly explained that _____. The king understood the joke and forgave him.

Moral: _____

12. Title: _____

A man claimed to own a magical horse that could _____. The king was curious, but Tenali Raman _____. He painted grass on a wall and asked _____. When the horse did nothing, the _____. The dishonest man confessed that he had invented the story to _____. The king praised Tenali for protecting the kingdom from _____.

Moral: _____

INSTRUCTIONS – CREATIVE STORY WRITING COMPETITION (ROUND 1)

1. Participants need to choose any one story from the above list and should fill in the blanks with creative story. The content they choose will be displayed.
2. Participants are encouraged to demonstrate creativity, imagination, and originality while developing the story.
3. The story should have a clear meaning.
4. Participants may add suitable characters, dialogue, descriptions, and details to enhance the story.
5. The story must have a relevant title.
6. The use of correct grammar, spelling, punctuation, and appropriate vocabulary will be considered.
7. Participants must complete the story within the allotted time.
8. The story must be original and written independently by the participant.

JUDGING RUBRICS – CREATE YOUR OWN STORY (ROUND 1)

Criteria	Description	Marks
1. Creativity & Originality	Demonstrates exceptional imagination and originality. The story presents fresh, engaging, and unique ideas that capture the reader's interest.	10
2. Story Structure & Plot Development	Has a clear and well-organized beginning, middle, and ending. Events flow logically, with effective development, conflict, and resolution.	10
3. Language & Vocabulary	Uses rich, varied, and appropriate vocabulary. Language is expressive and enhances the overall quality and impact of the story.	10
4. Grammar & Accuracy	Demonstrates excellent command of grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence construction, with little or no errors.	10
5. Characterization & Expression	Characters are vivid and well-developed. Emotions, dialogue, actions, and descriptions are expressed effectively, making the story engaging and believable.	10

GRADE I & II - ROUND 2

Tales of Imagination From a Picture sequence

The Content for Round 2 – On the Spot

INSTRUCTIONS – TALES OF IMAGINATION FROM PICTURE SEQUENCE (ROUND 2)

1. Participants will be given a sequence of pictures as prompts for story writing.
2. Observe all the pictures carefully and understand the events, characters, actions, and setting.
3. Write a creative and original story based on the given picture sequence.
4. Follow the sequence of the pictures logically while developing the story.
5. The story should have a suitable title, clear beginning, middle, and ending.
6. Participants may use their imagination to add suitable details, dialogue, emotions, and descriptions.
7. The story should demonstrate clarity, coherence, creativity, and originality.
8. Use appropriate vocabulary, correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation.
9. Ensure that the story remains relevant to all the pictures in the sequence.
10. Write the story independently and within the allotted time.

JUDGING RUBRICS – TALES OF IMAGINATION (ROUND 2)

Criteria	Description	Marks
1. Interpretation of Picture Sequence	Demonstrates excellent understanding of all the pictures and accurately interprets the events, actions, and relationships shown in the sequence.	10
2. Creativity & Originality	Develops a highly imaginative and original story from the picture sequence, adding creative details while remaining relevant to the pictures.	10
3. Story Structure & Sequencing	Presents a clear, well-organized story with an engaging beginning, logical progression of events, and a meaningful conclusion that follows the picture sequence effectively.	10
4. Language & Expression	Uses rich, varied, and appropriate vocabulary with expressive language, effective descriptions, and well-constructed sentences that make the story engaging.	10
5. Grammar, Accuracy & Presentation	Demonstrates excellent grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence construction, with neat, well-organized, and legible presentation.	10

Creativity Brings Out the Best in Every Individual . . .

Best Wishes from

SAS.